1. Foreword

We all have an ethnicity, an age, a sexual identity, a gender. Many of us belong to a faith group, with an increasing number of us recognising that we have a disability. These factors can often mean we want and need different things. It also means that when we say equalities, fairness, respect and dignity it is important we are talking about an agenda that affects everyone in our school community. Our ultimate aim is about creating inclusion.

We also want to work proactively to address inequalities and improve lives for good. This is especially important where our teaching and interventions can benefit children and young people for the rest of their lives.

This is the revised single Equalities Scheme for Ellenbrook Community Primary School. This document sets out our school's overall commitment to equality, diversity, human rights and community cohesion, which permeates in all our policies and procedures. It aims to ensure that everyone who comes into contact with our school community is valued and respected. It aims to promote equality of opportunity and eliminate unlawful discrimination harassment or victimisation. It contains an approach to all the groups of people with protected characteristics identified by the Equality Act 2010. It also sets out our specific school objectives and it outlines how the school will incorporate the scheme within our day-to-day school life.

Our scheme includes our whole school; i.e. pupils, staff, governors, parents and carers and all those within our extended school community, such as neighbouring schools and learning organisations.

Whilst the document also serves to outline our statutory duties under the Equality Act 2010, more importantly it allows us to focus on making our school a fair, respectful and inclusive place, with an aim to improve outcomes that matter to our school community.

2. Introduction

The role of an Equalities Scheme is to visibly set out our priorities for action to improve chances, choices and outcomes in the lives of different groups of people and measure how we are doing to attain them.

The Equality Act 2010 covers discrimination, harassment and victimisation because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnerships, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. These categories of people are listed as protected groups because of their characteristics. There is recognition of the complexity of multiple identities and therefore multiple needs and disadvantage. Our equality scheme includes our priorities and actions to eliminate discrimination and harassment from these protected characteristics as well as promoting a culture of human rights, respect and dignity.

The duties apply to staff, pupils and people using the services of the school, such as parents and the wider community.

Our school recognises our responsibilities with regard to the Equality Act 2010. The three areas which we are required to address are:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act,
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it,
- Foster good relations across all characteristics¹ - between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

To further these aims, the school should choose and publish equality objectives.

3. School Values

Ellenbrook School has an agreed set of principles that creates and leads our vision. These principles stimulate reflection and review, and support action. They define the heart and soul of our school. Our moral purpose acknowledges that there is a need for our pupils to be both challenged and supported if we are to enrich and enhance every child's learning and life experiences, by breaking down barriers to learning and participation. Our vision for Ellenbrook Primary School is that every child will succeed.

4. School Profile

Ellenbrook has 340 children on roll which includes 30 full time Nursery places. There are strong links with the local community and church that enriches pupils' religious, spiritual, moral and social education. These links contribute a valuable dimension to its community cohesion

Ellenbrook Primary School is an average-sized primary school. The proportion of pupils from minority ethnic backgrounds is lower than average, as is the proportion who speak English as an additional language. The proportion of disadvantaged pupils is well below average. The proportion of pupils who have special educational needs and/or disabilities is below average as is the proportion of pupils with an education, health and care plan. The early years provision comprises one Nursery class and two Reception classes. The school runs a breakfast club and after-school club. The school meets requirements on the publication of specified information on its website. The school meets the government's current floor standards, which set the minimum Inspection report expectations for the attainment and progress of pupils in English and mathematics by the end of Year 6.

- This school is a very popular choice with parents and has been constantly oversubscribed.
- The school became two form entry in 2015 with two classes in each group to Year Two and single form from Year 3 to Year 6 (there is a two form 'bubble' class in Year 5)
- The children come from a mix of socio-economic backgrounds.
- The vast majority live in owner occupier private housing
- The school has one Looked After Child and four post LAC children.
- Most parents are in full-time employment and many are self-employed.
- The school and grounds are free from vandalism.
- Children enter the nursery with skill levels that are broadly typical of children in this age group
- The school's intake shows a significant change in the last 5 years when most of pupils were from White British heritage and few were at the early stages of speaking English
- We now have 23% of children from ethnic backgrounds other than White British
- The percentage of pupils whose first language is not English, or believed not to be English, has also increased since the last inspection. It is now 12.9% of pupils (Nursery to Year 6) this is above the national average
- The percentage of children with special educational needs is below the national average (pupils registered as SEN 8.5%)
- Attendance figures 2018: overall attendance 96.6% and unauthorized absence 0.5 %. This continues to be above the LA average.
- The school is an active member of the Worsley Family of 10 schools and it benefits from the activities of the cluster especially through shared training and sports events
- Ellenbrook is the Worsley hub school for Maths
- The school is seen to be successful by the community it serves and it is a very popular choice with parents
- The school has always been very successful in achieving its aims and meeting its targets.

Staff and Governor profiles show a range of ages and ethnicities. Recruitment and selection policies adhere to L.A guidelines and there are no barriers to promotion or training.

All staffing policies, including grievance, disciplinary, pay, appraisal and capability, comply with the Equality Scheme document

8. Human Rights

Our school integrates human rights values and principles into key areas of school life. We recognise the duties and standards expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, The UN convention on the Rights of the People with Disabilities and the Human Rights Act 1998. We demonstrate our approach via;

- An overall school-wide atmosphere of equality, dignity, respect, non-discrimination and participation
- A fully democratic, participatory approach to school governance where all members of the school community are involved in decisions that affect them
- Empowerment of students, teachers, staff and governors to meaningfully and equally participate in the creation and implementation of school policies
- Student involvement in debates about change through school council, assemblies, collective worship, class discussions and pupil interviews!!
- An increased sense of inclusivity and interconnectedness that fosters mutual responsibility and local and global understanding and solidarity
- Rich learning experiences about human rights inside and outside of the classroom

9. Engagement and Involvement

We involved pupils, staff, governors, parents and carers, and our wider school community in creating this Equality Scheme and action plan.

We did this via a range of involvement and engagement process:,

- full Governing Board discussions/consultation,
- discussions/consultation with school council

This helped to ensure that the views of all groups, but especially potentially disadvantaged groups, were fully incorporated in the development of the Scheme and action plan.

10. Procurement & Commissioning

We are required by law to make sure that when we enter into an agreement to purchase goods or services from another organisation to help us provide our services, that organisation will comply with equality legislation. This is a significant factor in selection during any tendering process.
