

20 July 2018

Dear parents/carers,

The summer holiday has finally arrived and the sun is still shining for us! We would like to wish everyone a wonderful holiday and hope the children enjoy their well-deserved break.

We are not sending reading books home but obviously we would encourage the children to keep reading for pleasure. Salford libraries are running their usual summer reading challenges, please get involved and we would love to share certificates with the children in September. Also attached is a fun reading activity – Reading Bingo! Any completed lines or full houses will be celebrated and rewarded in September.

Please also be aware that salfordcommunityleisure.co.uk/summer are running a host of activities throughout the holiday. Have a look at their website for further details. Award winning authors and illustrators Petr Horacek, Tim Quinn and Jonny Duddle are going to be at Walkden library!

We look forward to hearing all about the children's holiday adventures in September.

Kind regards

Mr Marks & Mrs Baird
