New Ellenbrook School Twitter Page!

Dear Parents,

As part of our ongoing review of communication at Ellenbrook, we have set up a school twitter account. This will enable you to see the day to day life of Ellenbrook online and will primarily allow us to give you updates of trips and events as well as what is going on in the classroom daily. We had a very successful trial of Twitter during the Year 6 trip to Lledr and hope to phase out the blog and replace it with Twitter.

The Twitter feed can be accessed through the main school website or by using the following link

@EllenbrookComm1

The children's full names will not be posted on the site as a matter of safeguarding. Any type of presence on social media must be monitored very closely and as a school we take our safeguarding duties very seriously. We will ensure all staff are trained in appropriate use of twitter and that the postings fall in line with our other guidance documents on online images that are in place for the current blog.

Due to the changes in data Protection, GDPR regulations now require us to get specific permission from you all in order to use your child's images. If the slip below isn't returned we can't 'presume' it's ok with you and use your child's picture anyway.

PLEASE CAN WE ASK YOU TO RETURN THE REPLY SLIP BELOW. WE WOULD LIKE TO HAVE AS MANY CHILDREN REPRESENTED AS POSSIBLE.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

Many thanks

Mr Roger Blackburn
Headteacher
