Book Week – Monday 2nd – Friday 4th March 2020

Dear Parent / Carer,

From 2nd March to the 6th March 2020 Ellenbrook will be celebrating Book Week! This year we are celebrating the wonder of stories, and the importance of sharing stories and books with each other.

We have a jam-packed week organised already with visits from authors and theatre companies funded by the PTA; dressing up for World Book Day on the 5th March; and of course, pyjama day on the 6th March.

We would love for your help to make this week a success.

On Friday 6th March, we will be holding a Book Breakfast from 8:30am in the new hall where we will be celebrating the importance of sharing stories by coming together as a community to share books. We would love to invite the children (and you) to bring along favourite books to share. We will have books on offer to have a look at together and teachers will be available to talk about the importance of book sharing and reading for pleasure.

Also, during the week we would like to invite some of you to come into school in the guise of Secret Readers. If you are available at 3pm on any day during the week beginning 2nd March, and you are willing to share a favourite story, poem or extract with your child's class please can you let your child's teacher know. This must be kept a secret from the children as we don't want them to know who is coming to read!

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Mrs McCarthy-Stott, English Lead and the Ellenbrook Staff
