At Ellenbrook we seek to maintain a positive ethos for all pupils, with staff providing good role models of behaviour to develop an ethos that encourages constructive relationships between pupils and staff. A primary goal in the school is to allow the pupils to develop as much independence as possible, including the right and opportunity to make decisions about their own lives wherever it is safe and practical to do so.

All school staff continuously work to establish positive relationships with all pupils, and seek to acknowledge and promote positive behaviour. We realise that for some pupils' problems and frustrations can lead to behaviour difficulties, and we seek to develop relationships in which pupils can interact purposefully, learning positive ways of communicating with others.

1. Aims

Teachers use a wide range of motivation strategies within their class to support the children in achieving their potential. These may be targeted towards whole class rewards or individual motivation e.g. stickers, tokens etc.

However, all classes operate the following in-house systems:

- Star slips
- Positive comments in marking and reading records
- Phone calls or postcards home for praise by teacher or by Head if requested by teacher
- Showing of talents or good work to the class and when appropriate assembly

House Points

The use of House Points at Ellenbrook enables the children to develop a sense of community as well as fostering and encouraging healthy competition.

The children are able to earn House Points that count towards a personal reward as well as contributing to the House Cup which is awarded every year. In assembly each week, the number of House Points awarded during that week is read out and the House Points total is changed accordingly. At the end of term, the House with the most House Points will receive a House Treat.

The House Points children earn will go towards a certificate and end of term reward. The number of House Points they earn in a single term will determine the colour of certificate they receive. Below is a list of the certificates the children can earn and how many House Points they need to gain that certificate.

BRONZE	SILVER	GOLD
30 House Points	60 House Points	90 House Points

All Gold certificates will be given out to the children in the final assembly of each term and the children will also receive a 30 minute 'Golden Time' treat. This treat will be taken by the Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher. The remainder of certificates will be given out in assembly.

If three gold certificates are gained in a single academic year, the children will receive a platinum certificate and a special prize (to be decided at a later date).

During the school year there will also be a number of inter house competitions which can win the individual house a treat. These competitions are really important in developing pride in the houses and will be focused around drama, sport and academic activities.

Restorative Justice

Being 'Restorative' focuses on building positive relationships based on respect and fairness. In turn this creates a community that is supportive, accountable and respectful. We believe that every individual is responsible for their own behaviour. The Restorative framework is based upon knowing the effect that I have on others. Making changes to the way we approach incidences and issues provides children, and others, the opportunity to think about how they relate to each other and how they can find positive ways of repairing harm caused, rather than focusing solely on punishing poor behaviour or individuals avoiding taking responsibility for their actions.

All adults in school will support the children to put things right themselves where possible. We understand the importance of modelling positive language, behaviour and take time to develop positive and meaningful relationships with colleagues and pupils. When positive relationships are developed and connections are made individuals are less likely to cause harm to others or choose to damage relationships.

Sanctions In Class

A yellow and red card system operates in classes and during break and lunch for children who exhibit less than satisfactory attitudes or behaviour during work or play.

First warning

A first WARNING is given for unacceptable behaviour or attitude towards work or poor manners. The child will be asked if they understand what the warning is being given for and will be asked to think about how they can make a better choice and not repeat the behaviour. If the child is unable to explain, the teacher will calmly and carefully explain why it is given and the impact of the unacceptable behaviour. The pupil's initials will be recorded on the whiteboard when this warning is given to aid other adults teaching in the class.

Second warning

A yellow WARNING is given for a repeat of the above or similar behaviour with a more stern warning that the behaviour is not acceptable and if it continues a yellow card will be given. A tick is placed next to the child's name on the whiteboard to aid other adults teaching in the class.

Yellow Card

A yellow card is given if unacceptable behaviour continues despite the issue of two warnings or unsatisfactory behaviour warrants it. A yellow card can also be issued for significant incidents of unacceptable behaviour. The child is moved to an isolated position within the class to work uninterrupted until the teacher can sit with them to discuss the issue and consequences. A yellow card means being kept in for a part of break time. Class teachers will log incidence of Yellow Cards on the class record sheet and in the child's reading record. Two ticks will be placed next to the initials on the whiteboard to aid other adults teaching in the class.

Red Card

A red card is issued for violent or seriously unacceptable behaviour. The Headteacher, Deputy or Senior Leader will use their discretion in relation to violent incidents that occur between children. Should a child reach the red card stage, they are to be removed to the Headteacher's office or a Senior Leader's classroom or suitable supervised area. The Headteacher, Deputy or Senior Leader will discuss the issue with the child and record the behaviour in their homework diaries before returning them to their class and will record the child's name and the nature of the incident in the Central Discipline book which is kept in the Headteacher's office. At this stage, parents will be contacted directly regarding the incident. A ban from playtime will be given; however, depending on the nature of the behaviour, other appropriate sanctions may be given.

For extreme behaviour such as deliberate or thoughtless harm to others, bad language, or rudeness to staff, children will be referred immediately to the Headteacher or Deputy and parents notified as soon as possible.

LUNCH TIMES

Welfare Assistants also operate a similar warning card system.

First Warning

A first warning is given for unacceptable behaviour or breaking the playground rules.

Second Warning

A second warning is given if unacceptable behaviour continues. This is a more stern warning and the children are told that the next stage is a yellow card.

Yellow Card

A yellow card is given if unacceptable behaviour continues or the incident merits a straight yellow card.

Children receiving a yellow card will have 10 minutes "time out."

Red Card

Should a child be involved in a serious incident, a red card will be issued and the child will be brought into school and taken to the Head or Deputy. Parents would be contacted and a warning given about possible exclusion from school premises at lunchtimes for a fixed period.
